The musical score is arranged in a standard orchestral format with 15 staves. The top four staves are for saxophones (Sax Alto 1 & 2, Sax Tenor 1 & 2). The next four staves are for trumpets (Trompete 1-4). The next four staves are for trombones (Trombone 1-4). The next three staves are for tubas (Tuba B, Tuba C, Tuba E). The bottom two staves are for percussion (Caixa and Surdo). The score is in 2/4 time and features a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music is marked with a forte (f) dynamic throughout. Red curved lines are drawn over the saxophone parts, and blue curved lines are drawn over the brass parts. A blue double bar line with a repeat sign is placed at the beginning of the second measure of each staff. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

The musical score is arranged in a standard orchestral layout. It features 16 staves. The top four staves are for Saxophones: SxA1 and SxA2 in the soprano register, and SxT1 and SxT2 in the alto register. The next four staves are for Trumpets: Tpt1Bb, Tpt2Bb, Tpt3Bb, and Tpt4Bb. The following six staves are for Trombones: Tbn1, Tbn2, Tbn3, Tbn4, Tbb, and Tbc. The bottom two staves are for Percussion: Cx (Cymbals) and Srd (Snare Drum). The score is written in a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb) and a 2/4 time signature. It begins with a rehearsal mark '7' at the top left. Red curved lines are drawn over the notes in the saxophone and trumpet parts, likely indicating phrasing or articulation. The percussion parts include specific rhythmic patterns and dynamics markings.
